Policy statement

Connect Community Groups CIC believes everyone has the right to live free from abuse or neglect regardless of age, ability or disability, sex, race, religion, ethnic origin, sexual orientation, marital or gender status. The company

- Is committed to safeguarding principles which includes: empowerment, protection, prevention, proportionality, partnership and accountability.
- is committed to safeguarding adults and children in line with national legislation and relevant local guidelines by ensuring that our activities are delivered in a way which keeps everyone safe by creating and maintaining a safe and positive environment and an open, listening culture where people feel able to share concerns without fear of retribution.

Further Guidance on Raising and Managing a Concern

Procedure - If a child, young person or vulnerable adult confides in you, it is very important to remember that the person who first encounters a case of alleged or suspected abuse is not responsible for deciding whether abuse has occurred.

- Stay calm and approachable. Do not let your shock show.
- Listen very carefully to what is being said using empathic listening skills without interrupting.
- Explain at an appropriate time as early as possible that the information being given by the child or young person will need to be shared and passed on to others —but stress only to those who need to know. Do not in any circumstances promise to keep it a secret.
- Make it clear that you are taking the child, young person or vulnerable adult seriously and acknowledge how difficult this must be. Reassure them that they have done the right thing.
- Allow the child or young person to speak at their own pace.
- If you need to ask questions, then only ask questions for clarification, avoid asking questions that suggest particular answers, avoid asking probing questions you do not need to know all the details. Keep your questions open.
- Let the child, young person or vulnerable adult know what will happen next, who you will report the information to, what will happen once it's been reported.
- Record all the details of what was said immediately after. Use the child, young person or vulnerable adults exact wording do not try to interpret any of the information yourself unless necessary and if you do, identify which part is your interpretation. Record details such as names mentioned, dates, times, who the information went to and what action was taken next.
- Don't forget to sign and date the form.
- Share this information with the designated safeguarding lead as soon as practical.
- Act immediately do not delay
- Never delay emergency action to protect a child from harm. In an emergency ring 999.
- Always record in writing concerns about a child's welfare, including whether or not further action is take.
